MOVE the MONEY

WILPF | AUSTRALIA
WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOR PEACE & FREEDOM

WILPF.ORG.AU

WILPF Australia works for permanent peace built on feminist foundations of freedom, justice, nonviolence, human rights, and equality for all.

Our Move the Money campaign calls on the government to redirect public money and productive capacity away from war and weapons, and towards human security.

Why Move the Money?

Australia's 2026-27 Defence portfolio spending is projected to exceed $60 billion. AUKUS will cost the public more than $33 million a day over the next three decades.

Meanwhile your organisation, and the people in your community, confront unmet housing needs, underfunded health services, inadequate disability support, and an escalating climate crisis.

Spending more on the military doesn't automatically make us more secure. Peacebuilding through diplomacy, development and demilitarisation - and investing in sustainable, just, equal and inclusive communities - is the more durable path to peace.

Why support Move the Money?

By becoming a Move the Money supporter, your organisation can add its voice to a growing conversation about what everyday security means, how public resources are allocated, and how government investment can better address the conditions that enable people and communities to thrive.

Your support builds a collective voice for accountability, a fairer balance of public spending - and sustainable peace for all.

Become a Supporter.

Endorse the campaign's top-line ask: that the Australian Government move the money from military spending towards genuine human security. That means real accountability for military spending, commitment to peacebuilding, action on climate, and investment in the everyday work and care that is the foundation of human security.

Share your expertise and evidence on funding gaps, policy proposals, investment data, and lived experiences of underinvestment in human security.

Amplify the campaign message on your own communication channels. We'll share content, key messages, and opportunities to collaborate.

WILPF Australia will:

Put your issues in our campaign by amplifying your policy proposals, showing what your sector needs, how your asks meet human security needs - and what the government is choosing instead.

Provide resources like campaign briefs and updates, social media content, and action alerts

The Fine Print.

Supporters collaborate on the Move the Money campaign, and advance the campaign's specific top-line goal: that the Australian Government move the money from military spending towards genuine human security. Supporters endorse the campaign's specific goals only, and cooperate in good faith to achieve them.

This is a limited, campaign-specific arrangement. It does not constitute endorsement by WILPF Australia of a supporter organisation's broader purposes, positions, or activities, nor does it imply that supporter organisations endorse the positions of other supporters.

The arrangement continues for the life of the campaign and can be ended by either party at any time without notice.

WILPF Australia will not use a supporter organisation's name, logo, or content for purposes outside the campaign without explicit permission.

Becoming a supporter is a non-binding expression of intent to collaborate and does not create any legal or financial obligations between the parties unless otherwise stated in writing.
